Breda's Boutique celebrates 50 years of stylish fashion

CHRISTMAS 2022 brings more than a festive celebration to Breda Lyons McMahon of Breda's Boutique, Preston Place, Navan, as she celebrates her 50 years in business. Fondly reminiscing about the days of Radio Carousel, Breda fondly recalls when she would talk all things fashion on air in the mornings, and knows that she has had many customers that kept returning to support her from way back then. "It's been a journey," says Breda. "One that has been filled with fantastic clients that we are forever grateful for, one filled with levels of support that make us proud to do what we do. As part of the 50th anniversary this Christmas, we are having a birthday bonanza offering a variety of discounts across the store, and we look forward to seeing both familiar faces as well as new ones!" Stocking a wide variety of major brands in sizes from 8-28, Breda's Boutique has something on offer for everyone from the young to the old and from casual day wear to formal wear including mother of the bride fashion.

AN URGENT MESSAGE FROM SANTA!

SEASON'S greetings to everyone from the North Pole!

Letters are pouring in from all around the world so I would like to remind all the boys and girls in Ireland to write and post their letters to me as soon as possible.

The elves are working very hard to ensure that all the toys and gifts are ready in time for Christmas!

This is what the boys and girls should do: Write their letter to me straight away Put it in an envelope, seal it and address it to 'Santa Claus, The North Pole' .

Write their own name and full postal address (in very clear handwriting) on the top left-hand corner of the front of the envelope, so that we can write back.

Stick a stamp on the top right-hand corner and post it in your local An Post postbox - that's important!

It's that easy! My friends in An Post are helping me to reply to as many children's letters as possible before Christmas this year.

And a word to the adults - do get posting your cards and parcels to family and friends straight away! Christmas is getting very close now and there is snow and ice and other challenges in many places, so please allow time for your post to reach your loved ones before the big day.

Wishing you all a very happy and peaceful Christmas,

Yours, Santa.
